

Farhan Ahmad

React Developer

Passionate ReactJS Frontend Developer with expertise in crafting captivating and user-centric interfaces. Specializing in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React, I excel in creating responsive UI components for exceptional user experiences. With a focus on seamless navigation and a commitment to staying current with front-end trends, I bring innovation to every project. Proficient in Tailwind CSS, Material-UI, Firebase, and Redux Toolkit, I leverage dynamic technologies to enhance design and data manipulation. Skilled in NPM and streamlined package management, I utilize tools like Styled-Components and JSON for optimal development. Proficiency in VS Code, Git/GitHub, Netlify, and Vercel allows me to optimize workflows and deployment strategies. Adept at integrating RESTful APIs and utilizing formik for efficient form management, I am dedicated to creating exceptional digital experiences through innovative frontend solutions.
